

Answers

Think About It: Ancient Rome

1. a) Romulus b) banded together to form the city of Rome
2. Rome was situated right along the Tiber River, so it had access to water which made life and civilization possible. Rome was also surrounded by huge mountain ranges and hills which protected it from attack.
3. They set up a completely different type of government. They turned Rome into a republic.
4. The United States
5. B. sports and other events
6. The aqueducts transported clean water into the city and the sewers disposed of waste.
7. Socks and concrete
8. Scientists still use it to name animals and plants. Some of our languages came from Latin, as well.