

At the Park

There is a park near my home.

I love going to the park.

At the park, I play on the slide first.

Then I swing on the swings.

There is a tall tree at the park.

I like to sit under the tree.

I have fun at the park

Draw what you like to do at the park.

Write a sentence about your picture.

“At the Park”—Think About It

1. What does the title tell you about the text?

2. Where is the park?

3. What happens first in the text?

4. Do you like to go to a park? Why or why not?

5. Why do you think the author likes going to the park?

6. Fill in the blanks using words from the text.

A. At the park, I play on the _____ first.

B. Then I _____ on the swings.

Answers

At the Park, pp. 34–35

1. The title tells me the text is about something that happens at the park.
2. The park is near the author's home.
3. The author plays on the slide first.
4. Answers will vary. Ensure that students give a reason why they like or do not like going to the park.
5. Answers might vary. Sample answer: I think the author likes going to the park because they have a lot of fun at the park.
6. Answers:
 - A. slide
 - B. swing